Header: Have the title of the page at the top in a bar with a navigation drop down icon at the top left that drops down a quick navigation menu

FooterL Contains contact information, current default language, and general policies.

Different pages that link to personal interests Gaming, Movies, Shows, Game Dev

Game Dev page has links to tutorials and recommendations

Movies and Shows have quick summaries and links to wikipedia page of them

Gaming links to game pages and has a brief story description.

Summaries: Games, Movies, Shows

Tutorials: Game development stuff like programming and graphics, Game controls and story progression

Links to other sites for more information: Movies, Shows, Gaming, Game Dev

Purchase content: Links to any of the categories that require purchases

Free content: Links to content that requires no purchase

Country specific info: Show countries that have the above categories unavailable

Home page: General welcome with quick nav bar and general nav bar in middle

Tutorials: Game developement basic tutorials or links to other sites. Gaming tutorials for games of personal interest

Free content: Links to downloads for games or free media links for shows/movies. Maybe trailers

Country info: List of countries with no access to certain items. Comparative search

Purchase content: Links to other sites for all possible purchases of topic

Summaries: Story summaries of games, shows, or movies of interest. Links included to sites with more information